Gorska služba spasavanja (GSS) Srbije je dobrovoljna i neprofitna organizacija čiji je osnovni cilj pomoć i spasavanje u nepristupačnim planinskim i urbanim uslovima. Spasiti ljudski život, pomoći čoveku u nevolji, osnovni je zadatak GSS-a. GSS Srbije su 1952. godine osnovali iskusni alpinisti, dok danas Gorsku službu spasavanja sačinjava oko 200 aktivnih spasilaca, od kojih su mnogi iskusni planinari, visokogorci, alpinisti, sportski penjači, speleolozi, ronionci, skijaši i paraglajderisti.

Mountain Rescue Service of Serbia (MRS) is a voluntary and non-profit organization driven primarily by the cause of helping and rescuing endangered or injured people in rough alpine terrains and urban areas. The primary task of MRS is to save human life and to help those in trouble.

Mountain Rescue Service of Serbia was founded in 1952 by experienced climbers and alpinists of the Mountaineering Association of Serbia as its specific and elite group. Today, the MRS of Serbia performs rescue operations in caves, crags, crevasses, rock and canyon accidents, car accidents in unapproachable terrain, search and rescue operations in all terrains and conditions, provides rescue watch in ski resorts, etc.
